INDYSTAR COM Unsafe in Eastern time: Children are at risk

It's that time of year again. Because we are in the Eastern time zone, our children are going to school in the dark. We had our first fatality recently. How many more have to die or get assaulted before we decide to start looking out for the safety of our children and stop being in the Eastern time zone?

James Buschur

Carmel

Print Powered By